PROGRAMME DESCRIPTION

GRADUATE PROGRAMME

THE AIM OF THE SEU MBA IS TO PROVIDE A NEW TYPE OF MANAGER:

- A new type of manager who is not necessarily an expert in narrow specialty but is aware of the interconnected nature of all problems. Who, in a systemic way, can identify problems, interpret and assess the quality of data, critically reflect on situations, develop and implement plans, and through using the knowledge of the best current practices, to resolve problems.
- A new type of manager who is aware of differences of the 21st century for the need of operating and communicating in a global environment and dealing with the challenges of existing ecosystems, environments and social dimensions that every organization must address.
- A new type of manager who understands that the aspirations and practices of the workforce have changed, creating a more value-based working environment in constant communication with others. This requires new type of leadership, which is more people centric.
- A new type of manager who believes that learning is a lifelong endeavour and is constantly improving and aspiring towards excellence.
